

Mrs. Monica García Bergón

Mónica García Bergón has a degree in Pharmacy and a Master's degree in Health Management and Administration. She has extensive experience in implementing quality management systems based on international ISO, Joint Commission International and EFQM standards in the healthcare environment.

She is a partner of Asociación Madrileña de Calidad Asistencial (AMCA) and has been collaborating with SECA for years on different projects. She currently works as Head of Health Risk Management at Relyens, leading patient safety and healthcare quality improvement projects alongside healthcare professionals from public and private hospitals nationwide