

Mr. Stéphane Boulanger (Belgium)

Policy Advisor of the European Patient Safety Foundation
Founder of TRASA

Stéphane holds a degree in law from the University of Liège (Belgium) and a post-graduate degree in business management from ICHEC (Brussels). He is an expert in the dynamics of transition and change in organisations, at both strategic and operational levels.

During the first part of his career, as a management consultant, he carried out analyses and participated in process re-engineering and management system change projects in all sectors, including healthcare, specialising in purchasing.

Then, as policy advisor to the Walloon Ministry for Sustainable Development, he developed and managed the implementation of policy measures aimed at fostering societal transition towards sustainable production and consumption modes. More recently, he was director at the Belgian federation of cooperatives, where he played an active role in developing an incubator for social impact projects, also acting as an entrepreneurial coach.

In 2019, he founded his own consultancy office, TRASA, which is managing the Secretariat of the European Patient Safety Foundation.
