

Dr. Dmytro Heliuta (Ukraine)

Medical Director,
First Territorial Medical Association of Lviv (UNBROKEN), Ukraine

Dmytro Heliuta is a physician, nephrologist and healthcare executive with more than 20 years of clinical and managerial experience. Since 2025 he has been Medical Director of the First Territorial Medical Association of Lviv, one of the largest municipal healthcare organisations in Ukraine, where he oversees clinical governance, quality assurance, patient safety and the development of healthcare services.

Within the association he previously served as Deputy Medical Director for Paediatrics at St Nicholas Children's Hospital and as Head of the Nephrology and Dialysis Centre at St Panteleimon Hospital, where he led the development of renal replacement therapy programmes.

Earlier in his career he worked for nine years as Senior Medical Expert at the Naftogazstrakh insurance company, in medical expertise, claims assessment and healthcare risk management, and as an internal medicine physician in hospitals in Lviv and the Volyn region. A graduate in general medicine of the I. Horbachevsky Ternopil State Medical Academy, he is dedicated to advancing patient-centred care and strengthening healthcare systems.